BIOGRAPHY

- ◆ Children's Book Author
- ◆ Professional Book Author
- ◆ National Speaker
- ◆ Library Media Specialist
- ◆ Lifelong Educator

Toni Buzzeo is the author of children's books and professional books as well as countless articles. A longtime Library Media Specialist, she was named the 1999 Maine Library Media Specialist of the Year. She is an avid reader of children's and young adult books as well as a volunteer collaborating library media specialist in her local school

Toni lives in a colonial farmhouse in Buxton, Maine surrounded by many gardens, as well as flocks of wild turkeys and deer flies. She shares her home and 35 acres of the old farm with her entrepreneur husband, Ken Cyll. Her grown son Topher Cyll is a software engineer nearby in metropolitan Boston.

Toni is a knowledgeable and enthusiastic national speaker. She regularly visits schools and libraries as a visiting children's author. In addition, she speaks widely at library, reading, and writing conferences and offers in-service staff development trainings across the country.
